

I recently started using satellite radio. It is the greatest invention since the remote control! Any efforts to reduce the potential uses of satellite radio is not in the public's interest! I pay for this service and no one should have the right to reduce what I choose to hear on it!